

Room Leader Training

This programme is aimed at new leaders, room leaders or inexperienced deputies preparing for their first steps in leadership.

The Room Leader Programme will help you learn how to confidently lead colleagues and team members, to reflect on your leadership style and develop the skills and knowledge you need to lead and manage teams in your setting.

You will explore leadership concepts and the importance of motivating and inspiring colleagues to reach team goals. The programme will help you to reflect on your communication and how to manage conflict in a team. You will consider your own resilience and motivations for leading teams, whilst identifying ways to improve your time management, leadership and personal development.

Our Room Leader Programme will inspire you to explore how you support the leaders in your setting to deliver effective leadership and management, and our experienced coaches will help you to develop reflective, robust and meaningful leadership, creating a strong team culture enabling you to be a better leader and develop yourself in your leadership role.
